The Daily Press.

HONGKONG, DECEMBER 1st, 1910.

We are able to publish to-day the details of what one of our correspondents euphemistically calls the "little mission" of the soldiers and sailors of Macao who on Tuesday afternoon laid siege to Government House and by this menace compelled the Governor to sign forthwith a decree for the expulsion of the religious orders, and to give an order for the suppression of a Portuguese newspaper which had ventured to voice the sentiments of a very large section of the community in favour of the exemption of Macao from the operation of the drastic decree issued at Lisbon. At the same time they demanded an increased rate of pay, which we gather was conceded by the Governor under compulsion. It is anarchy pure and simple. The government of the Colony is thus seen to be in the hands of a rabble soldiery. Though none of the letters from which we have compiled our report expressly make the statement, we have been informed that the armed troops concerned in this escapade were under the command of no officer above the rank of sergeant. The men had openly revolted against the authority of their officers, and, having the Governor at their mercy, obtained from him a promise that none who had participated in the "demonstration" should be punished; yet they appear to have had the impudence to tell their Commander-in-Chief that "it was no wise their intention to prove unruly or undisciplined." Whatever they may think of their "intention," their fear of punishment clearly betrays a recognition of the fact that their actual conduct was utterly opposed to all notions of military discipline and therefore merited the severe punishments which the Army Regulations of all well-governed countries provide in such cases. If there is any honour and any sense of discipline left in the Portuguese Army we shall be much surprised to learn that a promise wrung from the Governor in such circumstances is held to be binding. The forces of the nation are only required to uphold the law by monies when they are directed by their superior officers under authority of the Government; when the men take it upon themselves to enforce what they imagine to be law, the result is anarchy. If the Governor had been recalcitrant and had refused to carry out the instructions forwarded to him, there are well-recognised means open to the Home Government to deal with such a situation, viz., by the cancellation of the appointment. But SENHOR MARQUES has not been recalcitrant. He has enforced the order against the Jesuits, and is prepared to take similar action against the other religious orders "as soon as the Lisbon Government think fit that he should do so." In other words His Excellency has not received any definite instructions to expel the nuns. Yet, on the mere supposition that such instructions had been received, we have the sorry spectacle of a large number of men of the Army and Navy scattering discipline to the winds, and, by a show of force, intimidating the Governor into issuing decrees not warranted by his instructions from Home. That is the situation, and the seriousness of it cannot well be minimised. The government of the Colony has been handed over to a rabble soldiery. As to the number of men actually concerned in this "demonstration," the reports are conflicting. One says "a mere handful," another about fifty, a third about a hundred. Altogether there are some six hundred troops of both services in Macao, and it would be interesting to know why a fraction of them were allowed for two or three hours to keep the city in a turmoil while the others, who presumably remained loyal to their officers, were not employed to get the recalcitrants back to barracks. Possibly if this had been attempted a worse state of affairs might have resulted, and the community of Macao has, perhaps, something to be thankful for that no personal violence was done to any one.

The opening ceremony of the first section of the Canton-Kowloon railway, at the Chinese end, takes place on Monday next.

Famine prevails in the province of Hunan and also in the northern portion of Anhui province, where the famine is described as one of the worst in history.

On page 5 will be found an interesting account of a Hongkong-born Jesuit Priest who was at the College of Barro, in Lisbon, at the time of the revolution.

Vice-Admiral Sir G. Neville, commanding the Third and Fourth Divisions of the Home Fleet, was nominated to preside over the Bedford court-martial.

A further interim dividend of 15 per cent, free of tax, on account of the year ending December 31 has been announced by the Edinburgh Rubber Estate, Selangor.

The British estate of the late Mr. Philip Arnold, senior partner in Messrs. Arnold, Karberg & Co. of London, Shanghai, Canton, New York, and Berlin, a director of the Shell Transport and Trading Co., Ltd., has been sworn at £23,682.

THE PLAGUE IN NORTH MANCHURIA.

Further advices from North Manchuria give the following totals of cases of plague up to the 13th inst.

	Chinese.	Russian.
Manchouli	141	129
Delai Nor	22	16
Chelantun	1	1
Haller	1	1
Pahetu	4	2
Tserehah	4	4
Harbin	1	1
Total	174	154

At Manchouli, on the 13th inst., there were 17 Chinese and 1 Russian cases with 12 Chinese fatalities, besides 7 fresh Chinese cases, 1,464 people were under medical surveillance.

Delai Nor had 1,001 people in detention for medical surveillance, Harbin 213 people and Taitshuher 1.

The Russian Railway management commenced at Harbin Station the medical inspection of the passengers and servants of the trains arriving from the west, except the express trains.

The management, wide awake to the danger of the tubercle, beaver, and similar animals as carriers of the transmission of the plague germs, the ordinary rat, has decided to suspend until further notice the transportation of these animals, their carcasses, skins and meat and oil manufactured therefrom.—Manchurian Daily News.

ALLEGED FALSE PRETENCES BY AN AMERICAN.

At the Magistracy yesterday A. Thayer, an American, appeared to answer the charges of false pretences preferred against him.

His Worship (Mr. J. E. Wood):—Are you prosecuting, Mr. Looker?

Mr. Looker—No, the police are prosecuting. His Worship—Then you are not prosecuting any more?

Mr. Looker—No, the police will. His Worship—Are you prosecuting, Mr. Denny?

Mr. Denny—Not at the moment, your Worship, but I have some interest in the case. The police are represented by Sergt. Wills, and I understand Mr. Gardiner, who is appearing for the defense, is going to ask for an adjournment for a week. In these circumstances the police won't object.

Mr. Gardiner—I would ask for a remand. Mr. Denny—There are three cases before your Worship.

His Worship (to Mr. Davies)—Are the Hongkong Hotel prosecuting?

Mr. Davies—No, they are not. His Worship—Then you are prosecuting, Sergt. Wills.

Sergeant Wills—Yes, sir. Mr. Gardiner—I would like an adjournment. His Worship—How long?

Mr. Gardiner—Three or four days as far as I am concerned, or I think a week will be more convenient to all parties. Will your Worship fix a day?

His Worship—Do you want a formal adjournment or an adjournment for hearing?

Mr. Gardiner—A formal adjournment. His Worship—If the case is committed it will have to stand over the December sessions. That means it will be January before it is taken?

Mr. Gardiner—Would your Worship remand it formally for three or four days, till Saturday morning?

His Worship—You are remanded until Saturday morning. I don't think I can ask the police to keep you any longer in custody. You will be remanded in goal. Bail as before, $5,000. Defendant was then remanded.

South coast of China between Hongkong and Hainan (Same as No. 1.)

THE REVOLT IN MACAO.

THE GOVERNOR INTIMIDATED.

From letters received from our regular correspondent at Macao and others we compile the following account of the sensational demonstration by a large body of troops at Macao on Tuesday afternoon.

A party of sailors from the gunboat Patria came ashore armed with rifles, and marched to the San Francisco public gardens in the vicinity of the convents, where they fired three shots—evidently a pre-arranged signal for the assembly of troops. As soon as the signal was given, armed men were seen making for the rendezvous from the San Francisco military police barracks, followed by armed men of the infantry and artillery. A large body of them marched down the Praya Grande to Government House evidently labouring under great excitement. Dr. Andrade and Senhor F. de Meneses appeared on the scene and interrogated the men, asking what their intentions were. Realising at once the state of affairs these gentlemen offered to see His Excellency the Governor on their behalf. A few moments later a small detachment of the men were called into Government House to state their demands. After they had been inside some little time, the troops without grew impatient and a raid on the residence seemed to be threatening, but officers who were near the steps succeeded in cooling the excitement and counselled a little patience. It is related that when Capt. Assunbuja Martins tried to induce the men to return to their barracks, one of them levelled a rifle at him. The Captain opened his tunic and said contemptuously, "Fire if you want to!"—but, happily no shot was fired.

The men demanded from the Governor:—

(1) That His Excellency should immediately issue a decree expelling all the religious orders.

(2) That the men of the Army and Navy should be given a better rate of exchange for their pay.

(3) That His Excellency should immediately suppress the newspaper Vida Nova.

The Governor had to yield to these requests, and signed the decrees for the expulsion of all the religious orders, and for stopping the publication of the Vida Nova. After receiving the written promises of the Governor, the men were conducted back to barracks by the officers of the companies to which they belonged, but it was evident that many of them were reluctant to go.

The "offence" of the Vida Nova appears to be solely that it has advocated the retention of the religious orders in Macao, and last Sunday published the text of the petition which had been numerously signed by the heads of families in the Colony praying the Home Government to exempt Macao from the operation of the order of expulsion.

With regard to the pay question, we learn that the men are paid on a role basis, at an exchange of 540 reis to the dollar, whereas the current rate of exchange is about 480. The rate is fixed at the beginning of the financial year, and the men had been informed that no change could be made until the beginning of a new year.

One of our correspondents says that the demands included the expulsion of the Bishop of Macao.

The community and especially the women-folk and the Chinese were much alarmed, but our correspondents concur in stating that the "demonstrators" showed no disposition to molest the civil community.

The Chinese, especially in the neighbourhood of the Praya Grande were frightened and many fled. Many shops closed their doors. The noise and excitement lasted for two or three hours.

One Portuguese correspondent informs us that the Macao Hotel, of which Mr. Farmer is the proprietor, hoisted the British flag over the house, and gave refuge to many Hongkong children from the Convent.

On news of the affair reaching Hongkong on Tuesday night several British residents who had children in the Convent schools chartered a steam launch which left for Macao at midnight. By the first steamer yesterday about a dozen Sisters and a score of children came down to Hongkong.

It was reported in the Colony on Tuesday night that the Governor and Mrs. Marques would be leaving immediately for Europe. News has reached the Colony that the lieutenant who distinguished himself by shooting four loyalist officers of the Dom Carlos when the revolution broke out and then took command himself, has been appointed to the Governorship of the Colony.

One correspondent mentions that a counter petition to the one already alluded to is being numerously signed praying the Home Government to strictly enforce the decrees for the expulsion of the religious orders from Macao.

Another correspondent writes:—

This poor Colony and its inhabitants have been as much maligned of late that to give Caesar his due, I am sending you a true statement of the events of the day as I had them from the best authorities. You will much oblige us all by publishing same."

This statement reads as follows:—

"Under the impression that the local government had not acted out in its entirety the decree relative to the expulsion of the Jesuits and the suppression of the religious orders a handful of men from the Navy in common with some of the land forces undertook to approach H.E. the Governor to-day thereabout. They foregathered in the public gardens by 3 p.m. and thence marched down the Praya Grande. On reaching Government House a detachment composed of 2 lieutenants and 2 privates from the Infantry and Police Corps respectively was sent up to interview the Governor. On stating their errand the cablegrams he had received from Home relative to the matter. The Jesuits, he said, had already been expelled, and as regards the other congregations which were exercising so much good among the rising generation he would not so soon as the Lisbon Government thought fit that he should do so. The detachment then stated that they and their fellows were apparently acting in defiance of order and authority, yet it was nowise their intention to prove unruly or undisciplined. They did not mean to hurt a soul. All they asked was the due execution of the law, and requested exemption from punishment for all those who had shared in the demonstration. The Governor acquiesced, and the men marched quietly back to barracks fully satisfied with the result of their little mission. In spite of the hundred and one versions of the incident, not a soul was injured, neither did the men show any signs of aggressiveness. They went back to their supper and all was quiet for the rest of the evening.

"Ignorant of the real state of things parents very concernedly withdrew their children from the convents, but there was, in truth, no cause for alarm, as no bodily injury was intended.

"A rumour, however, was rife towards night-fall that the nuns were leaving the Colony of their own accord, to-morrow, suitable arrangements having been made for the children in their charge."

Italian Sisters who arrived in Hongkong yesterday stated that soldiers and sailors used the most abusive and obscene language towards them and threatened to attack the convent.

COLONEL DOBELL APPOINTED A.D.C. TO THE KING.

The many friends of Colonel Dobell in Hongkong will be pleased to read the following extract from the London Gazette:—

"Brevet Lieutenant Colonel, Charles Macpherson Dobell, D.S.O., the Royal Welch Fusiliers, a General Staff Officer, second grade, at the War Office, to be an Aide-de-Camp to the King, and is granted the brevet rank of Colonel, vice Colonel L. A. Hope, C.B., retired, dated November, 4th 1910."

Lieut. Colonel Dobell will be remembered as the Adjutant of the Royal Welch Fusiliers during the stay of his battalion in Hongkong. The gallant officer has had a most distinguished career and served with great credit in the Boer Expedition, 1891, South African War, 1899-1900, China 1900, and West Africa (Northern Nigeria) 1906. He is a graduate of the Staff College. Brevet Colonel Dobell is the second graduate of the Royal Military College of Canada to become an Aide-de-Camp to the King, the other being Brevet Colonel W. C. G. Heneker, D.S.O., of the Connaught Rangers.

THE DEVELOPMENT OF MACAO.

A special correspondent of a London paper telegraphed from Lisbon on the 4th inst. the following information:—

The Journal Sculo reports that the Provisional Government's decision to improve the Port of Macao has been well received. A group of interests in China offered a loan for the reconstruction of the quay and other improvements, the cost of which is estimated at £200,000. The loan is to be redeemed by easy payments at a low rate of interest. They desire, however, a concession for the establishment of gambling saloons. The Government regards the proposal favourably, but declares that it is impossible to come to a decision on the subject before the National Assembly is convened.

THE POSSIBILITIES OF PANAMA.

Some results of the cutting of the Panama Canal are obvious, says Mr. W. J. Weston in the Magazine of Commerce. Trade with the west coast of America will be much increased by the possibility of avoiding the present costly railway carriage across the Continent, or the long and arduous voyage round the Horn.

The valuable shipments of tea and silk which now reach Europe by way of Vancouver, Seattle, San Francisco, the great railways, and the Atlantic ports, would be directed to the Isthmus. In time, indeed, Panama may become as great an emporium as Singapore or Hongkong. An impetus will doubtless be given to the exploitation of the mineral resources of Mexico and South America; and the Pacific wheat and timber trade will be encouraged.

JOHN GRANT BEFORE THE MAGISTRATE.

The hearing of the charges of forging and uttering forged cheques and with being in possession of a cheque in the Colony knowing it to have been stolen outside the Colony, preferred against John Grant, was resumed at the Magistracy yesterday before Mr. E. R. Hallifax. Mr. Denny, who prosecuted, added a further charge against the defendant of obtaining credit to the amount of $8.50 in the Vienna Cafe on the 30th October by means of fraud.

The second witness was Emily Beck, residing at 12, Hollywood Road, who said she knew the prisoner. He recently stayed two days at her house, and signed cheques amounting to $875. Before he left he gave her the cheque produced in payment of the bills. The cheque was out of her book and was signed by the prisoner. The cheque was sent to the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank, but was returned with a chit stating that there was no account in the name of G. Smith Grant.

Witness was cross-examined at length by prisoner. She said she thought prisoner was the man who signed the cheque.

Are you positive?—I think so.

Are you certain?—Yes.

Prisoner said he disputed the amount, and denied that the cheque was his.

Witness, in reply to his Worship, said the $875 included immoral consideration.

The houseboy at 12 Hollywood Road spoke to taking cheques to the Bank. They were returned to him without payment. He saw defendant in the house.

Prisoner—Was I with any other gentleman? Witness—No.

William H. Stewart, assistant in the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank, said he had seen the document produced. If the cheque were a good one it was his business to mark it for payment, but there was no account in the name of the drawer of the cheque, Gordon Smith Grant. He reported it to the chief accountant, who endorsed the cheque "No account." A few days later another cheque was brought to him at the Bank. That was in the name of G. Smith Grant. There was no account in that name.

A boy in the Vienna Cafe spoke to seeing the defendant, accompanied by a friend, in the Cafe on October 30th. He ordered some refreshments and signed the chits produced. They were signed "G. Smith Grant, P.W.D., Kowloon Canton Railway." One was signed "G. Smith Grant, Kowloon-Canton Railway, Public Works Dept."

The bar boy at the Imperial Hotel gave evidence of having seen defendant at the Hotel. He recognised the chits produced as having been signed by the defendant. They were signed "E. Roberts, Chinese Section Railway, Lohu."

Cross-Examined by defendant.

Did I pay cash for everything I had before that afternoon?—Yes.

Edna Stewart, of 53, Hollywood Road, said defendant came to her house on the morning of November 12th and remained some days. He told her he was E. Roberts, of Kowloon-Canton Railway, and lived at Lohu. Before he left she said if he would give her a cheque she would return his chits. He drew a cheque from his pocket, filled it up for the amount of $250, and signed it E. Roberts. Defendant then tore up the chits. Afterwards he signed two chits, one for $10 and the other for $30. She went with him to another house and in consequence of what she heard she became suspicious and told him she thought he was not Mr. E. Roberts. Defendant replied that he was, and added that the cheque would be honoured. She then said she would apologise if the cheque were honoured, and he replied that it would be honoured. Afterwards she asked, "Are you John Grant?" He answered, "The idea of your taking me for that bounder John Grant, who has been in goal." She had no idea he was John Grant. Next morning she sent the cheque to the bank and later it came back with a memorandum attached stating that the signature differed from the one in their possession. Defendant told her he was K. Roberts' brother. That was in consequence of a conversation, and it was then she got suspicious.

Cross-examined by defendant, witness said she had been ten years in Hongkong.

Have you ever seen me before the night of the 11th?—Not as you are now.

How long is that ago?—I don't remember.

Did I introduce myself as E. Roberts, or was it the other gentleman with me?—You introduced yourself.

Do you know anything about a quarrel downstairs on the night of the 12th?—No.

Do you know if I had any cash on me?—$10.

Do you remember my mentioning about losing a cheque?—No.

Do you know that I paid the boy $50 on Saturday night?—I do not.

What was this $255 for?—Board and refreshments.

Mr. E. Abraham, a clerk in the Chartered Bank, stated that a cheque (produced) came from a book which was supplied to Mr. Kendrick Roberts, whose address was Canton-Kowloon Railway, c/o Messrs. Jardine, Matheson & Co. He saw the cheque on November 14th, but did not recognise the signature as that of any of the bank's customers. On looking up the signature of Mr. Kendrick Roberts he saw that the signature on this cheque was nothing like it. In consequence he attached a memorandum stating that the signature differed from the one in the bank's possession, and returned the cheque. Witness had never known the defendant by the name of E. Roberts, and there was no account at the bank in that name.

The hearing was adjourned until to-morrow afternoon.

RATEPAYERS MEETING AT AMOY.

THE WATER SUPPLY QUESTION.

A special meeting of Kulungau Ratepayers was held at the Municipal Board Room, Kulungau, Amoy, at 4.30 p.m., on 22nd November, when there were present:—Miss McGregor, Revs. F. P. JOSELAND, P. W. PITCHER and G. M. WALES, Drs. J. MORRISON, C. MARR (Chairman), and A. READING, Messrs. H. J. P. ANDERSON, J. H. ARNOLD, H. BATHURST, R. G. H. BRODERSON, A. DEIRO, FERRIER, F. W. FOWLER, H. B. FRIKKE, W. C. HANLIN, J. T. HASHIMOTO, W. KRUSE, (3), J. KUPCH, H. S. MAOKENZIE, C. M. ARTEAS, J. P. MORLEY, J. Noble, H. B. PIKE, P. M. SARGAR, E. THOMAS, L. I. THOMAS, K. TENDARRABARA, B. G. TOURS (2), W. WILSON (2) and others.

Dr. C. MARR, His Imperial German Majesty's Consul and Senior Consul, was in the chair.

On the motion of the CHAIRMAN, Mr. Berkeley Mitchell was appointed Secretary to the meeting, and read the notice convening same.

Mr. W. KRUSE, Chairman of the Municipal Council, addressed the meeting as follows:—Miss McGregor and Gentlemen, I think that most of you will recall that in the Council's Annual Reports for several years the ratepayers' attention has been drawn to the fact that some adequate water supply should be provided on this island. I think that you will also recall the old adage that "one never misses the water until the well runs dry," and truly nothing could be more applicable to the situation at the present time. Numerous wells, both public and private, have become dry on account of the prolonged drought, in spite of restrictions issued by the Council against the indiscriminate removal of water from the island, making it a serious question for the health of the Settlement, to say nothing of the inconvenience caused to all. The Council has endeavored to cope with the situation by sinking additional public wells; this has cost a considerable amount of money, but only one has proved a success, and even this cannot be really so considered at the present time, owing to the fact that during a greater portion of the day it is so taxed that no water is available. The question of meeting this state of affairs was discussed at numerous meetings of the Council, and finally, failing no other solution of the problem, we invited a Japanese expert well expert to come over from Formosa and advise us whether or not an artesian well could be successfully sunk on the island. This party spent a week with us and went over the ground carefully with our Captain-Superintendent of Police, and eventually reported that in his opinion an artesian well could be successfully sunk at almost any point on the island, and that its maximum depth would be 1,800 feet. A two inch well, which it is proposed to sink, has an estimated flow of from 15,000 to 17,000 gallons per 24 hours, and would cost, according to our expert's figures, $3,550, comprised as follows:—

150 days (12' bored per day) @ $18 per day (including the fee of contractor and his assistants, cost of repairs to machinery, borer, coolies, &c.) ... 2,700.00

Fares and freight on machinery from Formosa ... 150.00

Cost of 1,800' of 2" piping ... 700.00

Total ... $3,550.00

You will see from the express issued by the Senior Consul convening this meeting that it is for the purpose of sanctioning the expenditure of funds for the sinking of an experimental artesian well. This expression "experimental" has been used for the reason that it has been ascertained (after having consulted each text book bearing on the subject as were available in Amoy, and after one of our body had consulted expert opinion in Hongkong) artesian wells are not always successful. Frequently no water bearing strata is struck, and, again, water may be struck and the well not be a flowing one. However, it would never be known whether an artesian well is possible unless someone takes the initiative, and there seems no other solution of the problem at any reasonable expense. I have neglected to state in the event water is struck at a less depth than 1,800 feet, of course the expense will be proportionately diminished. As to the site on which it is proposed to locate this experimental well, the Council has no definite recommendation to submit to you at the present moment, as it has been thought advisable to leave this until the expert comes over from Formosa in the event of your sanction being obtained at this meeting. Naturally, the question will occur to you as to where the funds will be obtained for meeting this expenditure, and I am pleased to say, on behalf of my colleagues, Mr. H. B. PIKE, of the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation, that he will allow us an overdraft, which it is proposed to retire by setting aside a sinking fund of $2,000 each year from the budgets of 1911 and 1912. At the present time our entire indebtedness amounts to only $18,000, which consists of 180 debentures of $100 each bearing interest at the rate of 7 per cent per annum. These funds were raised for the purpose of acquiring land and constructing Municipal buildings, gas, &c., and it is conservatively estimated that the land and buildings at the present time are worth $25,000. I think, therefore, that you will agree with our finances are in even too healthy a state, for at the expiration of fifteen years, even taking into consideration this expenditure, the island will be free of debt, and those coming to reside at that time will find their buildings all paid for, wells sunk, roads and drains constructed, &c., &c. If this artesian well proves a success, it is possible that some future Council will take up with you the question of sinking a larger one, and by constructing reservoirs and laying mains supply water to each individual house on the island, charging, of course, a regular water rate. This would certainly be a great convenience, to say nothing of the great protection which would be afforded in the event of fire, and would also improve the sanitary state of the island. I should like to state that it is not proposed to in any way increase taxation for this suggested experimental well, and in the event of it turning out a success, I am sure you will agree with me that the value of such an asset will be appreciated by all. If there are any other questions you would like to ask I shall be pleased to answer them to the best of my ability. Failing any question the subject is now open to discussion.

Rev. G. M. WALES—If the experimental artesian well is a success, is it the ultimate intention of the Council to sink numerous wells on the island? If not, he would not see what benefit would accrue to the whole community? As an illustration: an artesian well in Chambo would not benefit those in the North-East end of the island and vice versa.

Mr. L. I. THOMAS—It was the Council's original intention to sink an artesian well at each end of the island; but on reconsideration it was decided to recommend only one well at the present time, and this to take the form of an experimental scheme only. If water is obtained even this small quantity could be conserved, and by laying a main to the larger distributing centres in proximity it would greatly relieve the situation.

Mr. H. BATHURST spoke about the present situation and considered that more surface wells might meet the case.

Mr. W. KRUSE said that the sinking of such wells had not proved a success.

Mr. J. P. MORLEY—In the event of the experimental well failing, is it the purpose of the Council to make other experiments in various parts of the island at costs not exceeding $3,500 each?

Mr. W. KRUSE—Yes, I should think so.

Mr. L. I. THOMAS (after speaking to Mr. KRUSE) rose and said:—I think Mr. KRUSE understood Mr. Morley. The Council's purpose was that the most promising site would be selected for the well and if it was a failure, in all probability the artesian well scheme would have to be abandoned, as if water was not found there it would be hardly likely elsewhere. Then in that event some other scheme would have to be put forward.

Rev. F. P. JOSELAND—Is it possible to inform us of the approximate length of time needed to bore the artesian well, and how soon would the water be available?

Mr. W. KRUSE—The Japanese expert estimated it would take 150 days, 12 feet per day, based on its maximum depth. The length of time would depend on the depth.

Mr. H. BATHURST again dwelt on the necessity of more surface wells, and thought that one of the reasons they were not a success was because the sinking was abandoned when rock was met. He further enlarged upon the success achieved at Hillside, where by blasting a rock plenty of water was found. He felt this might have been done with the well at the Club.

Mr. W. KRUSE assured the meeting that everything had been done by the Council as regards surface wells, in the interests of both the Foreign and Chinese ratepayers.

Mr. B. G. TOURS—In discussion and argument round the question, the meeting should not lose sight of the original proposition. As I understand it, the idea and object of the Council in bringing forward the proposal regarding an experimental artesian well is to settle the question as to whether there can, or can not, be a permanent and regular water supply in Kulungau for use in emergencies of drought? That the surface wells are an unreliable source of water and are liable to drought has been plainly shown by two painful experiences in Kulungau in the present year. The absolute necessity of a water supply does not argue. If from no other point of view, sanitation and health demand a regular water supply. It has been shown conclusively that Kulungau does not at present possess a reliable water supply, and any efforts on the part of the Council to improve the state of things in this department should be welcomed and supported by the ratepayers. More opposition to the proposal is unreasonable; but if anyone has any scheme equally good, or better, let him bring it forward. A water supply is required, and an experimental artesian well is a step in the right direction, however it may turn out. More objections to the scheme certainly do not hold water.

The CHAIRMAN then submitted the following resolution:—"That this meeting of Ratepayers sanction expenditure on sinking an experimental artesian well."

The motion, being seconded by Mr. B. G. TOURS, was put to the meeting, resulting in 29 being in favour of the motion, and 5 against.

Two voting papers in favour, being unsigned, were not counted.

A hearty vote of thanks to the Chairman terminated the meeting.

SUFFERED FOR YEARS FROM LIVER COMPLAINT.

IMMEDIATE RELIEF, PAIN, DISAPPEARS, APPETITE RESTORED, OLD TIME VIGOUR RETURNS.

Thus F. TOWNSEND, Esq., speaks of his restoration.

The W. H. COMSTOCK CO., LTD. Gentlemen,—I have been troubled with a bad liver for years. The warm climate of South China is particularly prone to produce this complaint and in common with others I have suffered. A friend suggested Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills. I tried them and received immediate benefit. The pain in my side and back disappeared, my appetite has become a joy, life, which had been a burden, has become a joy. My old time vigour has returned. They have been a God-send to me. I would not be without them on any account. They keep me well and strong.

Believe me, Gentlemen, Yours most sincerely, F. TOWNSEND.

IS LIFE WORTH LIVING?

"That depends on the Liver." This is an old adage, true in more than one sense.

When the liver is out of order life is a burden. Headache, loss of appetite, furred tongue, bad breath, bad taste in the mouth, spots floating before the eyes, constipation, symptoms are the result of an inactive liver. Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills have a world-wide reputation as THE GREAT LIVER REMEDY and DIGESTIVE TONIC.

They secure regularity of the bowels, activity of the kidneys, purity of the blood, and impart strength and vigour to the whole system. They are a safe and reliable remedy for both sexes and all ages. For sale by all Druggists, Chemists and Medicine Dealers.

THE REVOLUTION AT LISBON

NARRATIVE OF A HONGKONG BORN JESUIT.

Writing to his relatives from "Manresa House," at Roshampton, S.W., a Hongkong-born Jesuit Father, who was taken prisoner at Lisbon and subsequently liberated owing to his being a British subject, says:—"You will be surprised to learn that I am no longer a prisoner. That's true. I am now among good people on whom one can rely, and I can now assure you that it is a good thing for me to have been born in Hongkong. I am going to give you a detailed account of the recent events. But before doing so I must tell you that if I ever boasted of having been born in an English Colony I do feel now, more than before, thankful from the bottom of my heart, that I am an Englishman. I shall explain why.

"As you must know, on the 3rd or 4th ult. a revolution broke out in Lisbon and a Republic was proclaimed. I was then in the College of Barro. On the 5th we heard the very alarming news that the Republicans intended surprising us with an assault. All necessary precautions were taken and the people in our vicinity who were all our friends were informed of this news; they spontaneously offered themselves to come to our assistance during the night to defend us and guard the college. At night they really made their appearance in good numbers and took up their stations. Up to midnight everything was quiet, but by one o'clock a group of republicans was seen approaching, shouting and creating a disturbance; one of our servants at the vineyard fired a shot at the assailants, killing one on the spot; they immediately took to their heels and fled, and nothing else occurred during that night, except that our servant, fearing the consequence of his action, has disappeared and we know not of his whereabouts. We were only informed of this and incident the next morning, the 6th, and were also informed that the authorities at Torres Vedras were acquainted with the incident, they being all republicans. About 9.30 a.m. a detachment of cavalry was seen coming in our direction, and another detachment of infantry was observed approaching from the hillside. We thought at first that they were coming to investigate matters, but imagine our surprise when we noticed that they were forming for a siege of the College. The republicans who followed them were shouting Viva republica! &c., and were maliciously intent on ransacking the College, though showing themselves afraid to approach the building. As nothing was immediately done and the troops had halted, our Rev. Father Rector went to meet them and asked what they intended; thereupon they resolved to enter the premises and intimidate the Rector that a Republic had been proclaimed and that they had orders to disperse them, or, better, to take them all to Lisbon. At first they only said that the Republican Government had ordered that priests should quit the College and that every one of them must march on to Lisbon immediately in order to present themselves before the Government and receive instructions, and that probably they would be then sent back each to
